Costs

AUD$3,510 tuition fee for member university students.

AUD$4,679 tuition fee for non-member university students and private participants.

AUD$426 administration and orientation fee: all applicants.

The administration fee is payable upon notification of acceptance into the program. The program tuition fee is payable on or prior to 1 November.

Placements

Applicants should be aware that they are applying for the program, not a specific placement. Participants are advised that it may not be possible for ACICIS to accommodate a student's stated preferences with respect to their placement Host Organisation. Additionally, all ACICIS practicum placements depend entirely on the goodwill and preparedness of Host Organisations to host participants. As such, Host Organisations retain the right to withdraw from the program or vary the number of participants they host at any stage. Therefore, while acting in good faith in preparing students for placements, ACICIS cannot guarantee any specific placement site and participants must accept this need for flexibility as a condition of participation in the program.

Visa and Travel Requirements

Applicants are responsible for arranging their own travel to and from Indonesia.

Applicants are required to have a passport valid for at least 6 months beyond the program commencement date.

Participants enter Indonesia on a pre-purchased 60-day Social-Cultural Visa. This is a single entry sponsored visa that is valid if presented within three months from the date of issue. This visa can be obtained prior to departure either via the ACICIS Secretariat in Perth (preferred) or directly from a participant's nearest Indonesian consular mission (additional charges will apply).

Participants who arrive in Indonesia with a Visa on Arrival (tourist visa) will not be permitted to commence the program.

Course Accreditation

Applicants are responsible for securing academic approval and/or credit recognition for their participation in the program from an authorised party within their home university, faculty, school, or department. It is strongly recommended that an applicant's home university approves the awarding of academic credit prior to an applicant's participation in the ACICIS practicum program. For applicants from ACICIS member universities, academic credit approval should be acknowledged via the 'University Approval Form'.

Withdrawal

Applicants who have been formally accepted into an ACICIS practicum program who subsequently decide to withdraw from, or postpone, their participation in the program should notify the ACICIS Secretariat in writing of their intentions as soon as possible. Depending on the timing of withdrawal, different financial and academic penalties may apply.

Pre-program Withdrawal

The Administration Fee payable upon notification of acceptance into the program is non-refundable. Withdrawal from an ACICIS practicum program after the payment of the program Tuition Fee (payable by 1 November) and prior to 1 December will attract an AUD$994 withdrawal fee, with the balance of the program Tuition Fee being refundable. After 1 December, no refunds – partial or otherwise – will be possible. Please note that students deferring payment of their ACICIS practicum program Tuition Fee through HECS-HELP will remain liable for any relevant withdrawal penalties in effect at their home university.

Mid-program Withdrawal

A student's ACICIS practicum program Tuition Fee is non-refundable from 1 December. Note that this date differs to the normal HECS-HELP census date in effect at students' home universities. Home institutions may elect not to withdraw the HECS-HELP liabilities pertaining to a student's participation in an ACICIS professional practicum or, alternatively, may require a student withdrawing after 1 December to repay the practicum Tuition Fee paid to ACICIS on the student's behalf by their home university.

Academic penalties incurred by a student withdrawing from an ACICIS professional practicum are determined by the Indonesian host university at which the student is enrolled and by the regulations in force at the student's home university. Student withdrawal from an ACICIS professional practicum after program commencement may result in the student being deemed to have failed the practicum program.

Proof of Insurance Cover

Travel insurance cover inclusive of provision for emergency medical repatriation is compulsory for all participants on ACICIS Professional Practicums.

Home University Responsibility

While undertaking ACICIS Professional Practicums, participants remain bound by the rules and statutes of the home university in which they are enrolled, in accordance with Clause 18 of the ACICIS joint venture agreement to which all ACICIS member universities are party.

ACICIS gratefully acknowledges the financial and in-kind support received from the Australian Commonwealth Department of Education and Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade through the New Colombo Plan Mobility Program.

Completion Date/ Expected completion date: MM / YYYY

*You must attach a copy of your academic record with your application.

Please enter your Weighted Average Mark across all units completed in your degree to date:

To calculate this, please take the sum of the percentage mark received for all units completed in your degree to date, and divide it by the number of units you have completed.

For example, if you have completed eight units to date, and received marks of 64, 83, 75, 58, 87, 64, 68 and 70 in these units, take the sum of these marks (64 + 83 + 75 + 58 + 87 + 64 + 68 + 70 = 569) and divide by the number of units completed (8) (569 ÷ 8 = 71.125) . Your average percentage mark in this instance (rounded to the nearest whole number) would be 71.
